1. Recently several Bulgarian Communist leaders met at the home of Slavecho Todorov, Calle Cadiz 148, in Berisso, for the purpose of discussing the defeatism and pessimism that is reportedly existing among some of the local Bulgarian Communists. It was decided to screen the members of Bulgaria Libre and thus eliminate the disloyal and the opportunists who have lacked the courage necessary to carry out their assignments.
2. In the Chaco Territory, Mito Matoff, an official of Bulgaria Libre, was severely reprimanded by the organization, and a circular was issued which charged him with lack of discipline. Matoff is reported to have become frightened when the Chaco police recently arrested local Communist Party members. Matoff and his followers were accused of being "parlor Communists." Dr. Thomas Davidov, retired President of Bulgaria Libre, was scheduled to make a special trip to the Chaco Territory to survey the situation there among the members of Bulgaria Libre.
